2. The Khadi and Village Industries Commission Act, 1956 (No. 61 of 1956).
3. The Jammu and Kashmir (Extension of Laws) Act, 1956 (No. 62 of 1956).
4. The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Orders (Amendment) Act, 1956 (No. 63 of 1956).

LAKSHMAN DASS,
Assistant Secretary (Judicial).

Received Assent on 25-9-56

THE REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE (THIRD AMENDMENT) ACT, 1956 (60 of 1956)

AN

further to amend the Representation of the People Act, 1950.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Representation of the People (Third Amendment) Act, 1956.
2. Insertion of new section 24.—In Part III, after 23 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 (43 of 1950) the following-section shall be inserted, namely:

“24. Temporary provision for inclusion of certain newly registered citizens.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sections 16, 17 and 18, every person who has been registered before the 1st day of November, 1956, as a citizen of India under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Citizenship Act, 1955 (57 of 1955) shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for a constituency, if that person on the 1st day of March, 1956, was not less than 21 years of age and was ordinarily resident in that constituency.

- (2) Every authority registering as citizens of India under the said clause (a) persons ordinarily resident in a constituency shall, as soon as may be after the 31st day of October, 1956, and not later than the 31st day of December, 1956, send to the electoral registration officer for the constituency a list in the prescribed form of all persons so registered who on the 1st day of March, 1956, were not less than 21 years of age.
- (3) Upon receiving a list under sub-section (2), the electoral registration officer shall, after inquiring into correctness of the list in such manner as may be prescribed, direct the inclusion in the electoral roll of the names of all persons included in the list who, in his opinion, are entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for the constituency under sub-section (1).”

Received Assent on 25-9-56

THE KHADI AND VILLAGE INDUSTRIES COMMISSION ACT, 1956 (61 of 1956)

AN

to provide for the establishment of a Commission for the development of khadi and village industries and for matters connected therewith.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called the Khadi and Village Industries Commission Act, 1956.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) “the Board” means the Board constituted under section 9;
- (b) “chairman” means the chairman of the Commission;
- (c) “Commission” means the Khadi and Village Industries Commission established under section 4;
- (d) “khadi” means any cloth woven on handlooms in India from cotton, silk or woollen yarn hand-spun in India or from a mixture of any two or all of such yarns;
- (e) “member” means a member of the Commission and includes the chairman;
- (f) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;
- (g) “secretary” means the secretary of the Commission appointed under section 5; and
- (h) “village industries” means all or any of the industries specified in the Schedule and includes any other industry deemed to be specified in the Schedule by reason of a notification under section 3.

3. Power to add to the Schedule.—(1) The Central Government may, of its own motion or on the recommendation of the Commission, declare, by notification in the Official Gazette, any other industry to be a village industry to which this Act applies, and thereupon the industry so declared shall be deemed to be an industry specified in the Schedule for the purposes of this Act.

(2) A copy of every notification issued under sub-section (1), shall be laid before each House of Parliament, as soon as may be, after it is issued.

CHAPTER II

THE KHADI AND VILLAGE INDUSTRIES COMMISSION

4. Establishment and constitution of the Commission.—(1) With effect from such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix in this behalf, there shall be established a Commission to be called the Khadi and Village Industries Commission which shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property and to contract, and may by the said name sue and be sued.

(2) The Commission shall consist of not less than three and not more than five members appointed by the Central Government, one of them being nominated by the Central Government to be the chairman thereof, and the members may be either whole time or part-time, as the Central Government may direct.

5. Secretary of the Commission.—The Central Government shall appoint, after consultation with the Commission, a member other than the chairman, to be the secretary of the Commission.

6. Financial Adviser of the Commission.—The Central Government shall appoint a person, not being a member, to be the Financial Adviser to the Commission.

7. Resignation of office by member.—Any member may resign his office by giving notice in writing to the Central Government and, on such resignation being notified in the Official Gazette by that Government, shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

8. Vacancies, etc., not to invalidate acts and proceedings of the Commission.—No act or proceeding of the Commission shall be invalid by reason only of the existence of any vacancy amongst its members or any defect in the constitution thereof.

9. Temporary association of persons with the Commission for particular purposes.—(1) The Commission may associate with itself in such manner and for such purposes as may be determined by regulations made under this Act any persons whose assistance or advice it may desire in complying with any of the provisions of this Act.

(2) A person associated with it by the Commission under sub-section (1) for any purpose shall have the right to take part in the discussions of the Commission relevant to that purpose, but shall not have the right to vote, and shall not be a member for any other purpose.

(3) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, depute one or more officers of the Government to attend any meetings of the Commission and to take part in the discussions of the Commission, but such officer or officers shall not have the right to vote.

10. Constitution of the Board.—For the purpose of assisting the Commission in the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute a Board to be called the Khadi and Village Industries Board consisting of a chairman and such number of other members as the Central Government may think fit, chosen from among persons who, in the opinion of the Central Government, are qualified as having had experience, and shown capacity, in matters relating to the development of khadi and village industries.

11. Commission to consult the Board.—The Commission shall ordinarily consult the Board with respect to the discharge of its functions under this Act.

12. Meetings of the Commission.—(1) The Commission shall meet at such times and places and shall, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), observe such rules of procedure in regard to transaction of business at its meetings (including the quorum at meetings) as may be provided by regulations made by the Commission under this Act:

Provided that the Commission shall meet at least once in every month.

(2) The chairman or, in his absence, any member chosen by the members present from among themselves, shall preside at a meeting of the Commission.

(3) All questions at a meeting of the Commission shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting and in the case of an equality of votes, the chairman or, in his absence the person presiding, shall have a second or casting vote.

13. Term of office and conditions of service of chairman, secretary and other members.—The term of office and the terms and conditions of service of the chairman, the secretary and the other members and of the Financial Adviser to the Commission shall be such as may be prescribed.

14. Officers and servants of the Commission.—(1) The secretary shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed or as may, from time to time, be delegated to him by the Central Government or by the chairman.

(2) Subject to such rules as may be made by the Central Government in this behalf, the Commission may appoint such other officers and servants as it considers necessary for the efficient performance of its functions:

Provided that no person whose honorarium or the maximum salary exceeds five hundred rupees per month shall be appointed by the Commission except with the previous approval of the Central Government.

CHAPTER III

FUNCTIONS OF THE COMMISSION

15. Functions of the Commission.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the functions of the Commission shall generally be to plan, organize and implement programmes for the development of khadi and village industries.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Commission may take such steps as it may think fit—

- (a) to plan and organise the training of persons engaged in the production of khadi or in village industries;
- (b) to build up a reserve of raw materials and implements and to supply them to persons engaged in the production of khadi or in village industries at such economical rates as may be suitable in the opinion of the Commission;
- (c) to provide for the sale and marketing of khadi or of products of village industries;
- (d) to encourage and promote research in the technique of production of khadi or in the development of village industries, or to provide facilities for a study of the problems relating to khadi or village industries;
- (e) to maintain or assist in the maintenance of institutions for the development of khadi or village industries;
- (f) to undertake, assist or encourage the production of khadi or the development of village industries;
- (g) to promote and encourage co-operative efforts among manufacturers of khadi and persons engaged in village industries;
- (h) for ensuring the genuineness of, and for granting certificates to producers of, or dealers in, khadi or the products of any village industry;
- (i) to carry out any other matter which may be prescribed.

16. Power of Central Government to give directions.—In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Commission shall be bound by such directions as the Central Government may give to it.

CHAPTER IV

FINANCE, ACCOUNTS, AUDIT AND REPORTS

17. Payment to the Commission.—The Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, pay to the Commission in each financial year such sums as may be considered necessary for the performance of the functions of the Commission under this Act.

18. Funds of the Commission.—(1) The Commission shall have two separate funds to be called the khadi fund and the village industries fund, and all grants and advances made to the funds, from time to time, by the Central Government for the purposes of the development of khadi or the development of village industries, and all receipts of the Commission in respect of khadi or village industries shall be credited to the khadi fund or village industries fund, as the case may be, and all payments by the Commission for or in respect of khadi or village industries shall be made from the appropriate fund.

(2) Except as otherwise directed by the Central Government, all moneys belonging to such funds shall be deposited in the Reserve Bank of India or with the agents of the Reserve Bank of India, or, where there is neither an office of the Reserve Bank of India nor an agent of the Reserve Bank of India, in a Government Treasury, or be invested in such securities as may be approved by the Central Government.

19. Power of the Commission to spend.—Subject to the provisions of section 20 the Commission shall have power to spend such sums as it thinks fit on purposes authorised by this Act:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent the Commission from spending, with the previous approval of the Central Government, such moneys, as it thinks fit on any such purpose outside the territories to which this Act extends.

20. Budget.—(1) The Commission shall, by such date in each year as may be prescribed, prepare and submit to the Central Government for approval two separate budgets in the prescribed form for the next financial year, to be called the khadi budget and the village industries budget, showing the estimated receipts and expenditure in respect of khadi and village industries respectively during that financial year.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4), no sum shall be expended by or on behalf of the Commission unless the expenditure is covered by a specific provision in the budget approved by the Central Government.

(3) The Commission may, within the respective limits of the khadi budget and the village industries budget, sanction any reappropriation from one head of expenditure to another or from a provision made for one scheme to that in respect of another, but in no case shall a reappropriation of fund be made from the khadi budget to the village industries budget or from the village industries budget to the khadi budget:

Provided that no reappropriation from the head 'Loan' to any other head of expenditure and vice versa in either budget shall be sanctioned by the Commission, except with the previous approval of the Central Government.

(4) The Commission may, within such limits and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, incur expenditure in excess of the limit provided in the budget approved by the Central Government under any head of expenditure or in connection with any particular scheme, so long as the aggregate amount in either budget approved by the Central Government is not exceeded.

21. Borrowing of money.—Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, the Commission shall have power to borrow on the security of the khadi fund or the village industries fund or any other asset for any purposes for which such funds may be applied.

22. Transfer of liabilities and obligations to the Commission.—All liabilities incurred by, all contracts entered into with, and all matters and things engaged to be done by or for the Central Government in connection with the development of khadi or village industries at any time after the 14th day of January, 1953, and before the Commencement of this Act, shall, after such commencement, be deemed to have been incurred by, entered into with, or engaged to be done by, or for, the Commission.

23. Accounts and Audit.—(1) The Commission shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts, including the profit and loss account and the balance sheet in such form as may be prescribed by the Central Government in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor General of India.

(2) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India at such intervals as may be prescribed by him.

(3) The Comptroller and Auditor General of India and any person appointed by him in connection with the audit of the accounts of the Commission shall have the same rights and privileges and authority in connection with such audit as the Comptroller and Auditor General has in connection with the audit of Government accounts and, in particular, shall have the right to demand the production of books, accounts, connected vouchers and other documents and papers and to inspect any of the offices of the Commission.

(4) The accounts of the Commission as certified by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India or any other person appointed by him in this behalf together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded annually to the Central Government and that Government shall cause the same to be laid before each House of Parliament.

24. Returns and reports.—(1) The Commission shall furnish to the Central Government, at such time and in such form and manner as may be prescribed or as the Central Government may direct, such returns and statements and such particulars in regard to any proposed or existing programme for the promotion and development of khadi and village industries, as the Central Government may, from time to time, require.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Commission shall, as soon as possible after the end of each financial year, submit to the Central Government a report, in such form and before such date as may be prescribed, giving a true and full account of its activities, policy and programme during the previous financial year.

(3) A copy of the report received under sub-section (2) shall be laid before each House of Parliament.

CHAPTER V

MISCELLANEOUS

25. Dissolution of the Commission.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that the Commission shall be dissolved from such date as may be specified in the notification and thereupon the Commission shall be deemed to be dissolved accordingly.

(2) On and from the said date—

(a) all properties and funds which, immediately before the said date, were in the possession of the Commission for the purposes of this Act shall vest in the Central Government; and

(b) all members shall vacate their office as members of the Commission.

26. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the term of office of, and the manner of filling casual vacancies among, the members of the Commission, and the terms and conditions of service of the Chairman, the secretary and the other members and of the Financial Adviser to the Commission including the salaries and allowances to be paid to them and the travelling and daily allowances to be drawn by them when they are on tour;

(b) the disqualifications for membership of the Commission and the procedure to be followed in removing a member who is or becomes subject to any disqualification;

(c) the term of office and other conditions of service of, the procedure to be followed in the discharge of functions by, and the manner of filling casual vacancies among, members of the Board;

(d) the powers and duties to be exercised and performed by the secretary and the Financial Adviser to the Commission;

(e) the date by which, and the form in which, the budget shall be prepared and submitted in each year under sub-section (1) of section 20;

(f) the procedure to be followed for placing the Commission in possession of funds;

(g) the procedure to be followed and the conditions to be observed in borrowing moneys or in granting loans;

(h) the conditions subject to which, and the mode in which, contracts may be entered into by or on behalf of the Commission;

(i) the form and manner in which the accounts of the Commission shall be maintained under sub-section (1) of section 23;

(j) the form and manner in which the returns, reports or statements shall be submitted under section 24; and

(k) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be laid for not less than thirty days before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after they are made and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

27. Power to make regulations.—(1) The Commission may, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act and the rules made thereunder, for enabling it to discharge its functions under this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the terms and conditions of appointment and service and the scales of pay of officers and servants of the Commission, other than the secretary and the Financial Adviser to the Commission, including payment of travelling and daily allowances in respect of journeys undertaken by such officers and servants for the purpose of this Act;
- (b) the time and place of meetings of the Commission, the procedure to be followed in regard to transaction of business at such meetings and the quorum necessary for the transaction of such business at a meeting;
- (c) the delegation of powers and duties to the secretary or any employee of the Commission;
- (d) the maintenance of minutes of meetings of the Commission and of the Board and the transmission of copies thereof to the Central Government;
- (e) the persons by whom, and the manner in which, payments, deposits and investments may be made on behalf of the Commission;
- (f) the custody of moneys required for the current expenditure of the Commission and investment of moneys not so required;
- (g) the maintenance of accounts; and
- (h) the form in which certificates of genuineness of khadi and products of village industries may be granted by the Commission.

(3) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, rescind any regulation which it has sanctioned and thereupon the regulation shall cease to have effect.

THE JAMMU AND KASHMIR (EXTENSION OF LAWS) ACT, 1956

(62 of 1956)

AN

to provide for the extension of certain laws to the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Jammu and Kashmir (Extension of Laws) Act, 1956.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Extension and amendment of certain laws.—(1) The Acts and Ordinance mentioned in the Schedule and all rules, orders and regulations made thereunder are hereby extended to, and shall be in force in, the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(2) With effect from the commencement of this Act, the Acts and Ordinance mentioned in the Schedule shall be amended as specified therein.

3. Construction of references to laws not in force in Jammu and Kashmir.—Any reference in any Act or in the Ordinance mentioned in the Schedule to a law which is not in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall, in relation to that State, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law, if any, in force in that State.

4. Construction of references to authorities where new authorities have been constituted.—Any reference by whatever form of words in any law for the time being in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir to any authority competent at the date of the passing of that law to exercise any powers or discharge any functions in that State shall, where a corresponding new authority has been constituted by or under any law now extended to that State, have effect as if it were a reference to the new authority.

5. Repeals and savings.—If immediately before the commencement of this Act there is in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir any law corresponding to any Act or Ordinance now extended to that State, that law shall, save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, stand repealed on such commencement:

Provided that the repeal shall not affect:—

- (a) the previous operation of any law so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder,
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so repealed,
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any law so repealed, or
- (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if this Act had not been passed:

Provided further that, subject to the preceding proviso, anything done or any action taken (including any appointment or delegation made, notification, instruction or direction issued, form, bye-law or scheme framed, certificate obtained, permit or licence granted or registration effected) under any such law shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of the Act or Ordinance now extended to that State, and shall continue to be in force accordingly unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under the said Act or Ordinance.

6. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of any Act or Ordinance now extended to the State of Jammu and Kashmir, the Central Government may, by order notified in the Official Gazette, make such provisions or give such directions as appear to it necessary for the removal of the difficulty.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, any such notified order may,—

- (a) specify the corresponding authorities within the meaning of section 4,
- (b) provide for the transfer of any matter pending immediately before the commencement of this Act before any court, tribunal or other authority, to any corresponding court, tribunal or authority for disposal,

THE SCHEDULED CASTES AND SCHEDULED TRIBES ORDERS (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1956 (63 of 1956)

AN

to provide for the inclusion in, and the exclusion from, the lists of Scheduled Castes and of Scheduled Tribes, of certain castes and tribes and matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Orders (Amendment) Act, 1956.

2. Definitions.—In this Act,—

- (a) “article” means an article of the Constitution;
- (b) “census authority” means the Deputy Registrar General, India;
- (c) “Last census” means the census held in 1951;
- (d) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

3. Amendment of Scheduled Castes Orders.—(1) The Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950, is hereby amended in the manner and to the extent specified in Schedule I.

(2) The Constitution (Scheduled Castes) (Part C States) Order, 1951, is hereby amended in the manner and to the extent specified in Schedule II.

4. Amendment of Scheduled Tribes Orders.—(1) The Schedule to the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order, 1950, is hereby amended in the manner and to the extent specified in Schedule III.

(2) The Schedule to the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) (Part C States) Order, 1951, is hereby amended in the manner and to the extent specified in Schedule IV.

5. Determination of population of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.—(1) Where the list of Scheduled

Castes or Scheduled Tribes in relation to any State is varied by this Act, the population as at the last census of the Scheduled Castes or, as the case may be, of the Scheduled Tribes in that State (including in relation to Assam, the population of the Scheduled Tribes in that State excluding the tribal areas and the population in each autonomous district thereof) shall be ascertained or estimated by the census authority in such manner as may be prescribed and shall be notified by that authority in the Gazette of India:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any State in relation to which provision for redetermining the population of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes is made in section 42 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956), or in section 15 of the Bihar and West Bengal (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1956 (40 of 1956).

(2) The population figures so notified shall be taken to be the relevant population figures as ascertained at the last census and shall supersede any figures previously published.

6. Amendment of orders of the former Delimitation Commission.—In addition to the duties imposed by section 44 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956) and any other law on the Delimitation Commission constituted under section 43 of the said Act, it shall be the duty of that Commission—

(a) to redetermine, on the basis of the population figures notified under section 5 of this Act for any State, the number of seats to be reserved for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes of that State in the House of the People and in the Legislative Assembly, if any, of that State, having regard to the relevant provisions of the Constitution and of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956);

(b) if on such redetermination the number of reserved seats of any class in any State is found to be different from the number fixed in Final Order No. 1 of the former Delimitation Commission, to make such amendments in any of the orders made by that Commission under section 8 of the Delimitation Commission Act, 1952, (81 of 1952) as may be necessary for the purpose of giving proper representation to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, of that State; and

(c) to take into account the provisions of this section while preparing the Order referred to in sub-section (2) of section 47 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956).

7. Power to make rules.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

THE STATE FINANCIAL CORPORATIONS (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1956

(56 of 1956)

AN

ACT

further to amend the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the State Financial Corporations (Amendment) Act, 1956.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Amendment of section 2.—In section 2 of the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951 (63 of 1951), (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act),—

(i) for clause (b), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(b) ‘Financial Corporation’ means a Financial Corporation established under section 3 and includes a Joint Financial Corporation established under section 3A;”;

(ii) to clause (c), the following Explanation shall be added, namely:—

“Explanation.—The expression ‘processing of goods’ includes any art or process for producing, preparing or making an article by subjecting any material to a manual, mechanical, chemical, electrical or any other like operation;”;

(iii) after clause (f), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(ff) ‘State Government’ in relation to a Part C State, means the Lieutenant Governor, or as the case may be, the Chief Commissioner;”.

3. Amendment of section 3.—In sub-section (2) of section 3 of the principal Act, for the words “acquire and to hold”, the words “acquire, hold and dispose of” shall be substituted.

4. Insertion of new section 3A.—After section 3 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“3A. Establishment of Joint Financial Corporations.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, two or more States may, after consultation with the Reserve Bank, enter into an agreement that there shall be one Financial Corporation for the group of States participating in the agreement and if the agreement is published in the Official Gazette of each of those States, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, establish a Joint Financial Corporation to serve the needs of those States under such name as may be specified in the notification.

(2) An inter-State agreement under sub-section (1) among the participating States may—

(a) provide for the fixation of the authorised capital of the Joint Financial Corporation, the number of fully paid up shares into which it shall be divided, and the allocation among the participating States of the shares to be distributed under clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 4;

(b) provide for the sharing of the liability for the guarantee under section 6 or section 7;

(c) provide for the number of directors to be nominated to the Board by each participating State Government;

(d) provide for the apportionment among the participating States of expenditure in connection with the Joint Financial Corporation;

(e) provide for the division among the participating States of the surplus profits payable by the Joint Financial Corporation under sub-section (3) of section 5;

(f) determine which of the participating State Governments shall exercise the several functions of the State Government under this Act, and references in this Act to the State Government, in relation to the joint Financial Corporation, shall, save as otherwise expressly provided, be construed accordingly;

(g) provide for consultation among the participating States either generally or with reference to particular matters arising under this Act;

(h) make such incidental and consequential provisions, not inconsistent with this Act, as may be deemed necessary or expedient for giving effect to the agreement.

(3) The Joint Financial Corporation shall be a body corporate by the name notified under sub-section (1), having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power, subject to the provisions of this Act, to acquire, hold and dispose of property and shall by the said name sue and be sued.

(4) Any reference in this Act to ‘State’ in relation to a Joint Financial Corporation established for two or more States, shall be construed as a reference to each such State.”.

5. Amendment of section 5.—In sub-section (1) of section 5 of the principal Act, after the words “financial institution”, the words “or class of financial institutions” shall be inserted.

6. Amendment of section 7.—In section 7 of the principal Act, after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3) The Financial Corporation may, for the purpose of carrying out its functions under this Act, borrow money from the Reserve Bank, repayable on demand or on the expiry of fixed periods not exceeding ninety days from the date on which the money is so borrowed, against securities of the Central Government or of any State Government.”.

7. Amendment of section 10.—In section 10 of the principal Act,—

(i) to clause (a), the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that in the case of a Joint Financial Corporation, the number of directors shall be such as the State Governments of the participating States may, by agreement among themselves, think fit to nominate, each participating State Government nominating not more than two directors.”;

- (ii) in clause (d), the words “from among themselves” shall be omitted.

8. Amendment of section 14.—In section 14 of the principal Act, after sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(1A) If the managing director is by infirmity or otherwise rendered incapable of carrying out his duties or is absent on leave or otherwise in circumstances not involving the vacation of his appointment, the State Government may, after consultation with the Board, appoint another person to act in his place during his absence.”.

9. Amendment of section 17.—Section 17 of the principal Act shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) thereof and after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2) The State Government may, after consulting the Board, remove the managing director from office:

Provided that no managing director shall be so removed unless he has been given an opportunity of showing cause against his removal.”.

10. Amendment of section 18.—In section 18 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1),—

- (a) for the word “three”, the words “the following” shall be substituted;

- (b) to clause (a), the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that in the case of a Joint Financial Corporation, in addition to the one director elected from among the directors nominated by the Reserve Bank and the Industrial Finance Corporation of India, as many directors as there are participating States shall be elected by the nominated directors, one each from among the directors nominated by each of the participating State Governments.”.

11. Amendment of section 19.—In section 19 of the principal Act, after sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3A) If, for any reason, a director nominated under clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (c) of section 10 is unable to attend any meeting of the Board, the State Government, the Central Board of the Reserve Bank or the Board of Directors of the Industrial Finance Corporation of India, as the case may be, may depute any other person to attend the said meeting and such person shall, for all purposes of the said meeting, be deemed to be a director nominated under clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (c), as the case may be, of the said section.”.

12. Amendment of section 25.—In section 25 of the principal Act,—

- (a) in sub-section (1),—

- (i) the word “and” at the end of clause (e) shall be omitted;

- (ii) after clause (e), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(ee) acting as an agent for the Central Government or the State Government or the Industrial Finance Corporation of India established under the Industrial Finance Corporation Act, 1948, (15 of 1948) in the transaction of any business with an industrial concern in respect of loans or advances granted, or debentures subscribed, by any one of them; and”;

- (b) in sub-section (2) after the words “prescribed by regulations”, the words “or unless it is guaranteed as to the repayment of principal and the payment of interest by the State Government, a scheduled bank or a State co-operative bank” shall be inserted.

13. Amendment of section 27.—In section 27 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2) for the words, figures and brackets “Indian Companies Act, 1913 (VII of 1913)”, the words and figures “Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956)” shall be substituted.

14. Amendment of section 29.—In section 29 of the principal Act—

- (a) in sub-section (1) for the words “right to sell”, the words “right to transfer by way of lease or sale” shall be substituted;

- (b) in sub-section (2)—

- (i) the words “of sale and realisation” shall be omitted;

- (ii) for the words “as if the sale”, the words “as if the transfer” shall be substituted;

- (c) for sub-section (4), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(4) Where the management of an industrial concern is taken over by the Financial Corporation or any property is transferred and realised by it under the provisions of sub-section (1), all costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by it as incidental to such management, or transfer and realisation shall be recoverable from the industrial concern and the money which is received by it from such management or transfer and realisation shall, in the absence of any contract to the contrary, be held by it in trust to be applied firstly, in payment of such costs, charges and expenses and, secondly, in discharge of the debt due to the Financial Corporation, and the residue of the money so received shall be paid to the person entitled thereto.”.

15. Amendment of section 31.—In section 31 of the principal Act in sub-section (1),—

- (i) after the words “fails to make such repayment”, the words and figures “then, without prejudice to the provisions of section 29 of this Act and of section 69 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882)”, shall be inserted;

- (ii) in clause (a), for the word “Corporation”, the words “Financial Corporation” shall be substituted.

16. Amendment of section 32.—In section 32 of the principal Act, after sub-section (8), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(8A) An order under this section transferring the management of an industrial concern to the Financial Corporation shall be carried into effect, as far as may be practicable, in the manner provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), for the possession of immovable property or the delivery of movable property in execution of a decree, as if the Financial Corporation were the decree holder.”.

17. Insertion of new sections 32A, 32B, 32C, 32D, 32E and 32F.—After section 32 of the principal Act, the following new sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“Power of Financial Corporation to appoint directors or administrators of an industrial concern when management is taken over.—32A. (1) When the management of an industrial concern is taken over by the Financial Corporation, the Financial Corporation may, by order notified in the Official Gazette, appoint as many persons as it thinks fit,—

- (a) in any case in which the industrial concern is a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), to be directors of that industrial concern; or

- (b) in any other case, to be administrators of that industrial concern.

(2) The power to appoint directors or administrators under this section includes the power to appoint any individual, firm or company to be the managing agent or manager of the industrial concern on such terms and conditions as the Financial Corporation may think fit.

32B. Effect of notified order under section 32A.—On the issue of a notified order under section 32A,—

- (a) in any case in which the industrial concern is a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956, (1 of 1956), all persons holding office as directors of the industrial concern and in any other case, all persons holding any office having the powers of superintendence, direction and control of the industrial concern, immediately before the issue of the notified order, shall be deemed to have vacated their offices as such;
- (b) any contract of management between the industrial concern and any managing agent or any director or manager thereof holding office as such immediately before the issue of the notified order shall be deemed to have terminated;
- (c) in the case of an industrial concern which is a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), the managing agent, if any, appointed under section 32A shall be deemed to have been duly appointed in pursuance of the said Act and the memorandum and articles of association of the industrial concern and the provisions of the said Act and the memorandum and articles shall, subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, apply accordingly, but no such managing agent shall be removed from office except with the previous consent of the Financial Corporation;
- (d) the directors or the administrators appointed under section 32A shall take such steps as may be necessary to take into their custody or under their control all the property, effects and actionable claims to which the industrial concern is, or appears to be, entitled, and all the property and effects of the industrial concern shall be deemed to be in the custody of the directors or administrators, as the case may be, as from the date of the notified order;
- (e) the directors appointed under section 32A shall, for all purposes, be the directors of the industrial concern duly constituted under the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), and such directors, or as the case may be, the administrators appointed under section 32A, shall alone be entitled to exercise all the powers of the directors or as the case may be, of the persons exercising powers of superintendence, direction and control, of the industrial concern, whether such powers are derived from the said Act or from the memorandum or articles of association of the industrial concern or from any other source whatsoever.

32C. Powers and duties of directors and administrators.—

(1) Subject to the control of the Financial Corporation, the directors, or as the case may be, the administrators appointed under section 32A, shall take such steps as may be necessary for the purpose of efficiently managing the business of the industrial concern and shall exercise such powers and have such duties as may be prescribed.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers vested in them under sub-section (1), the directors or as the case may be, the administrators appointed under section 32A, may, with the previous approval of the Financial Corporation, make an application to a Court for the purpose of cancelling or varying any contract or agreement entered into at any time before the issue of the notified order under section 32A, between the industrial concern and any other person and the Court may, if satisfied after due inquiry that such contract or agreement had been entered into in bad faith and is detrimental to the interests of the industrial concern, make an order cancelling or varying (either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose) that contract or agreement and the contract or agreement shall have effect accordingly.

32D. No right to compensation for termination of contract of managing agent, managing director, etc.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any contract or in any law for the time being in force, no managing agent, managing director or any other director or a manager or any person in charge of management of an industrial concern shall be entitled to any compensation for the loss of office or for the premature termination under this Act of any contract of management entered into by him with such concern.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall affect the right of any such managing agent or managing director, or any other director or manager or any such person in charge of management to recover from the industrial concern, moneys recoverable otherwise than by way of such compensation.

32E. Application of Act I of 1956.—(1) Where the management of an industrial concern, being a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), is taken over by the Financial Corporation, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act or in the memorandum or articles of association of such concern,—

- (a) it shall not be lawful for the shareholders of such concern or any other person to nominate or appoint any person to be a director of the concern;
- (b) no resolution passed at any meeting of the shareholders of such concern shall be given effect to unless approved by the Financial Corporation;
- (c) no proceeding for the winding up of such concern or for the appointment of receiver in respect thereof shall lie in any court, except with the consent of the Financial Corporation.

(2) Subject to the provisions contained in sub-section (1) and to the other provisions contained in this Act and subject to such other exceptions, restrictions and limitations, if any, as the Central Government in consultation with the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), shall continue to apply to such concern in the same manner as it applied thereto before the issue of the notified order under section 32A.

32F. Restriction on filing of suits for dissolution, etc., of an industrial concern not being a company when its management is taken over.—(1) Where the management of an industrial concern not being a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956, (1 of 1956) is taken over by the Financial Corporation, no suit or proceedings for dissolution or for partition shall, in so far as it relates to that industrial concern, lie in any court or before any tribunal or other authority except with the consent of the Financial Corporation.

(2) No proceeding for the appointment of any official assignee or receiver in relation to any industrial concern the management of which has been taken over by the Financial Corporation shall lie in any court except with consent of the Financial Corporation."

18. Amendment of section 33.—In section 33 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2), for the words "or in a scheduled bank in consultation with the Reserve Bank", the words "or, in consultation with the Reserve Bank, in a scheduled bank or a State co-operative bank", shall be substituted.

19. Amendment of section 36.—In sub-section (1) of section 36 of the principal Act, for the words "two months" the words "three months" shall be substituted.

20. Amendment of section 37.—In section 37 of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1),—

(i) for the words, figures and brackets "section 144 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (VII of 1913)", the words, figures and brackets "section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956)", shall be substituted;

(ii) for the words "the other", the words "the other auditor or auditors" shall be substituted;

(b) after sub-section (1), the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided that where such other auditor or auditors are to be elected for the first time after the establishment of the Financial Corporation, the Board may appoint such auditor or auditors who shall hold office until the election is held”.

21. Insertion of new section 37A.—After section 37 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“37A. Inspection.—(1) The Reserve Bank at any time may, with the approval of the Central Government, and on being directed so to do by that Government shall, cause an inspection to be made by one or more of its officers of the working of any Financial Corporation and its books and accounts; and the Reserve Bank shall send the report of such inspection to the Central Government and to the State Government and shall supply a copy thereof to the Financial Corporation.

(2) It shall be the duty of every director or every officer of the Financial Corporation to produce to any officer making an inspection under sub-section (1) all such books, accounts and other documents in his custody or power and to furnish him with any statement and information relating to the affairs of the Financial Corporation as the said officer may require of him within such time as the said officer may specify.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872) or in any other law for the time being in force, no court, tribunal or other authority shall have power to require the Reserve Bank or any of its officers to produce before such court, tribunal or other authority the report of the inspection made by it under sub-section (1) or any copy thereof.

(4) The State Government may, after considering any report sent to it under sub-section (1), give such instructions to the Board as it considers necessary and it shall be the duty of the Board to comply with such instructions.”.

22. Amendment of section 38.—In sub-section (3) of section 38 of the principal Act, for the words “three months”, the words “four months” shall be substituted.

23. Amendment of section 39.—In section 39 of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), after the words “the State Government”, the words “in consultation with the Reserve Bank,” shall be inserted;

(b) in sub-section (3), after the words “laid down by the State Government”, the words, brackets, figures and letter “under sub-section (1) of this section or the instructions given to the Board under sub-section (4) of section 37A” shall be inserted.

24. Insertion of new sections 46A and 46B.—After section 46 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“46A. Extension of jurisdiction of the Financial Corporation to other States by agreement.—(1) Where a Financial Corporation has been established for any State and any other State desires that the Financial Corporation should serve its needs, and the States, after consultation with the Reserve Bank, enter into an agreement which is published in the Official Gazettes of each of those States, then the Financial Corporation shall, on the issue of a notification in the Official Gazette by the Central Government, serve the needs of those States in terms of the agreement.

(2) An inter-State agreement among the participating States may, as far as may be, make all such provisions as are referred to in sub-section (2) of section 3A.

46B. Effect of Act on other laws.—The provisions of this Act and of any rules or orders made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in the memorandum or articles of association of an industrial concern or in any other instrument having effect by virtue of any law other than this Act, but save as aforesaid, the provisions of this Act shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other law for the time being applicable to an industrial concern.”.

25. Amendment of section 48.—In sub-section (2) of section 48 in clause (m), after the words “this Act”, the words “fees for attending meetings thereof and the conduct of business thereat” shall be inserted.

THE INDIAN RAILWAYS (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1956

(59 of 1956)

AN

ACT

Further to amend the Indian Railways Act, 1890

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Indian Railways (Amendment) Act, 1956.

2. Substitution of new Chapter for Chapter VIA in Act IX of 1890.—For Chapter VIA of the Indian Railways Act, 1890, the following Chapter shall be substituted, namely:—

'CHAPTER VIA

LIMITATION OF EMPLOYMENT OF RAILWAY SERVANTS

71A. Definitions.—In this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) the employment of a railway servant is said to be "continuous" except when it is excluded or has been declared to be essentially intermittent or intensive;
- (b) the employment of a railway servant is said to be "essentially intermittent" when it has been declared to be so by the prescribed authority on the ground that the daily hours of duty of the railway servant normally include periods of inaction aggregating six hours or more (including at least one such period of not less than one hour or two such periods of not less than half an hour each), during which the railway servant may be on duty, but is not called upon to display either physical activity or sustained attention;
- (c) the employment of a railway servant is said to be "excluded", if he belongs to any one of the following categories, namely:—
 - (i) railway servants employed in a confidential capacity;
 - (ii) armed guards, or other personnel subject to discipline similar to that of the armed police forces;
 - (iii) staff of the railway schools imparting technical training or academic education;
 - (iv) such categories of class IV staff as may be specified by the Central Government by rules made under section 71E;
 - (v) such staff as may be specified as supervisory staff by the Central Government by rules made under section 71E;
 - (vi) such categories of staff of the Health and Medical Department as may be specified by the Central Government by rules made under section 71E;
- (d) the employment of a railway servant is said to be "intensive" when it has been declared to be so by the prescribed authority on the ground that it is of a strenuous nature involving continued concentration or hard manual labour with little or no period of relaxation.

71B. Chapter VIA not to apply to certain railway servants.—This Chapter shall not apply to any railway servant to whom the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923 (21 of 1923), or the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948) or the Mines Act, 1952 (35 of 1952), applies.

71C. Limitation of hours of work.—(1) A railway servant whose employment is essentially intermittent shall not be employed for more than seventy-five hours in any week;

(2) A railway servant whose employment is continuous shall not be employed for more than fifty-four hours a week on the average in any month;

- (3) A railway servant whose employment is intensive shall not be employed for more than forty-five hours a week on the average in any month;
- (4) Subject to any rules that may be made under section 71E, temporary exemptions of railway servants from the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) may be made by the prescribed authority if it is of opinion that such temporary exemptions are necessary to avoid serious interference with the ordinary working of the railway or in cases of accident, actual or threatened, or when urgent work is required to be done to the railway or to rolling stock, or in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented, or in other cases of exceptional pressure of work:

Provided that a railway servant so exempted shall be paid for over-time at not less than one and one-half times his ordinary rate of pay.

71D. Grant of periodical rest.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a railway servant—

- (a) whose employment is intensive or continuous shall be granted, each week commencing on Sunday, a rest of not less than thirty consecutive hours;
- (b) whose employment is essentially intermittent shall be granted, each week commencing on Sunday, a rest of not less than twenty-four consecutive hours including a full night;
- (c) whose employment is excluded under sub-clause (iv) of clause (c) of section 71A shall be granted a rest of not less than forty-eight consecutive hours each month, or a rest of not less than twenty-four consecutive hours each fortnight.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), locomotive or traffic running staff shall be granted, each month, a rest of at least four periods of not less than thirty consecutive hours each, or at least five periods of not less than twenty-two consecutive hours each including a full night.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Central Government may, by rules made under section 71E, specify the railway servants to whom periods of rest may be granted on a scale less than that laid down under sub-section (1) and may prescribe the periods of rest to be granted to such railway servants.

- (4) Subject to any rules that may be made under section 71E, temporary exemptions of railway servants from the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) may be made by the prescribed authority if it is of opinion that such temporary exemptions are necessary in the cases or circumstances specified under sub-section (4) of section 71C:

Provided that a railway servant so exempted shall, as far as may be possible, be granted compensatory periods of rest for the periods he has foregone.

71E. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may make rules—

- (a) prescribing the authorities who may declare that the employment of any railway servant is essentially intermittent or intensive; and providing for appeals against any such declaration and the manner in which, and the conditions subject to which, any such appeal may be filed and heard;
- (b) specifying the railway servants or classes of railway servants to whom sub-clauses (iv), (v) and (vi) of clause (c) of section 71A may apply;
- (c) prescribing the authorities by whom exemptions under sub-section (4) of section 71C or sub-section (4) of section 71D may be made;
- (d) providing for the delegation of powers by the prescribed authorities referred to in clause (c);
- (e) specifying the railway servants or classes of railway servants to whom sub-section (3) of section (3) of section 71D may apply and prescribing the periods of rest to be granted to them;

- (f) providing for appointment of supervisors of railway labour and their functions;
- (g) providing for any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed under this Chapter.

- (2) The rules made under sub-section (1) shall be subject to the provisions of section 143.

71F. Railway servant to remain on duty.—Nothing in this Chapter or the rules made thereunder shall authorise a railway servant to leave his duty where due provision has been made for his relief, until he has been relieved.

71G. Supervision of railway labour.—(1) Subject to any rules that may be made under section 71E, the Central Government may appoint persons to be supervisors of railway labour.

- (2) The duties of supervisors of railway labour shall be—

- (a) to inspect railways in order to determine if the provisions of this Chapter and of the rules made thereunder are duly observed; and
- (b) to perform such other functions as may be prescribed.

- (3) A supervisor of railway labour shall be deemed to be an Inspector for the purposes of sections 5 and 6.

71H. Penalty.—Any person under whose authority any railway servant is employed in contravention of any of the provisions of this Chapter or of the rules made thereunder shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

THE TERMINAL TAX ON RAILWAY PASSENGERS ACT, 1956 (69 of 1956)

AN

to provide for the levy of a terminal tax on passengers carried by railway from or to certain places of pilgrimage or where fairs, melas or exhibitions are held.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Terminal Tax on Railway Passengers Act, 1956.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette appoint.

2. Definitions.—In this Act unless the context otherwise requires—

- "maximum rates" means the rates of terminal tax specified in the Schedule;
- "mela" means a public gathering on the occasion of any religious festival;
- "notified place" means a place of pilgrimage or a place where a fair, mela or exhibition is being or is likely to be held, which the Central Government has by notification in the Official Gazette, declared to be a notified place for the purposes of this Act;
- "railway administration" has the meaning assigned to it in the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890).

3. Terminal tax on passengers carried by railway from or to notified places.—(1) Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, there shall be levied on all passengers carried by railway from or to any notified place a terminal tax in respect of every railway ticket (whether single or return) at such rates not exceeding the maximum rates as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette fix; and such notification shall specify the date with effect from which, and may also specify the period for which, the terminal tax shall be leviable:

Provided that where no such period is specified in the notification, the terminal tax shall be leviable for so long as this Act is in force.

(2) Subject to the maximum rates, different rates of terminal tax may be fixed,—

- in relation to different notified places; and
- in respect of short-distance passengers and long-distance passengers; provided that the rate in respect of short-distance passengers shall be always lower than that in respect of long-distance passengers.

Explanation.—In this sub-section a passenger travelling by railway from or to any notified place to or from a distance of not more than one hundred and fifty miles shall be deemed to be a short-distance passenger and any other passenger travelling by railway shall be deemed to be a long-distance passenger.

4. Terminal tax not to be levied within certain limits.—

No terminal tax shall be levied on any passenger travelling by railway from or to any notified place to or from any railway station situated within a radius of forty miles from that notified place or within such shorter distance from that place as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

5. Power of Central Government to vary rates of tax.—

The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, vary from time to time in respect of railway passengers generally or a class of railway passengers the rates of the terminal tax levied in relation to any notified place under section 3.

6. Power of Central Government to discontinue levy.—

The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare that with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification, the terminal tax levied in relation to any notified place shall for reasons specified in the notification cease to be levied in relation to that place.

7. Mode of recovery of tax.—(1) The terminal tax levied under this Act shall be collected by means of a surcharge on fares by the railway administration, and where it is so collected the railway administration shall have all the powers and remedies for the recovery thereof as though the same were a rate or fare which the railway administration is empowered to levy under the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890).

(2) Such portion of the total proceeds of the tax attributable to any notified place as the Central Government may from time to time ascertain shall be deducted to meet the cost of collection of the tax.

8. No other terminal tax on railway passengers when terminal tax under this Act is levied.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any law where a terminal tax in relation to any notified place is levied under this Act on passengers carried by railway, no other terminal tax in relation to such place shall be levied under any other law on such passengers.

9. Exemptions.—Nothing contained in this Act or in any other law shall be deemed to authorise the levy of a terminal tax on the following classes of passengers carried by railway, namely:—

- children not over three years of age;
- police officers travelling on railway warrants;
- persons travelling on military warrants and troops travelling in reserved vehicles at vehicle rate; and
- free pass holders.

(ii) after the words “such decree”, the words “or order” shall be inserted.

14. Amendment of the First Schedule.—In the First Schedule to the principal Act,—

(1) in Order V, after rule 20, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“20A. Service of summons by post.—(1) Where, for any reason whatsoever, the summons is returned unserved, the Court may, either in lieu of, or in addition to, the manner provided for service of summons in the foregoing rules, direct the summons to be served by registered post addressed to the defendant or his agent empowered to accept service at the place where the defendant or his agent ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.

(2) An acknowledgment purporting to be signed by the defendant or the agent or an endorsement by a postal employee that the defendant or the agent refused to take delivery may be deemed by the Court issuing the summons to be prima facie proof of service.”

(2) in Order XII, after rule 3, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“3A. Power of Court to record admission.—Notwithstanding that no notice to admit documents has been given under rule 2, the Court may, at any stage of the proceeding before it, of its own motion, call upon any party to admit any document and shall, in such a case, record whether the party admits or refuses or neglects to admit such document.”;

(3) in Order XVI, after rule 1, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“(1A) Production of witnesses without summons through Court.—Where any party to the suit has, at any time on or before the day fixed for the hearing of evidence, filed in the Court a list of persons either for giving evidence or for producing documents, the party may, without applying for summons under rule 1, bring any such person, whose name appears in the list, to give evidence or to produce documents.”;

(4) in Order XX, for rule 1, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“1. Judgment when pronounced.—The Court, after the case has been heard, shall pronounce judgment in open Court, either at once or, as soon thereafter as may be practicable, on some future day; and when the judgment is to be pronounced on some future day, the Court shall fix a day for that purpose, of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their pleaders.”;

(5) in Order XXI,—

(a) rule 70 shall be omitted;

(b) in rule 71, the words “or to the Collector or subordinate of the Collector, as the case may be” shall be omitted;

(6) in Order XXV, for rule 1, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“1. When security for costs may be required from plaintiff.—(1) At any stage of a suit, the Court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any defendant, order the plaintiff, for reasons to be recorded, to give within the time fixed by it security for the payment of all costs incurred and likely to be incurred by any defendant:

Provided that such an order shall be made in all cases in which it appears to the Court that a sole plaintiff is, or (when there are more plaintiffs than one) that all the plaintiffs are, residing out of India and that such plaintiff does not possess or that no one of such plaintiffs possesses any sufficient immovable property within India other than the property in suit.

(2) Whoever leaves India under such circumstances as to afford reasonable probability that he will not be forthcoming whenever he may be called upon to pay costs shall be deemed to be residing out of India within the meaning of the proviso to sub-rule (1).”;

(7) in Order XXXIV, in rule 11,—

(a) in clause (a),—

- (i) sub-clause (ii) shall be omitted;
- (ii) in sub-clause (iii), for the words "at the same rate as is payable on the principal, or failing both such rates, at nine per cent. per annum", the words "at such rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum as the Court deems reasonable" shall be substituted;
- (b) for clause (b), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—
- "(b) subsequent interest up to the date of realisation or actual payment on the aggregate of the principal sums specified in clause (a) as calculated in accordance with that clause at such rate as the Court deems reasonable".
- (8) in Order XXXVII, in rule 1, after clause (a), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—
- "(b) any District Court or other Court specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government;"
- (9) in Order XLIV, rule 1 shall be re-numbered as sub-rule (1) thereof, and—
- (a) in sub-rule (1) as so re-numbered, the proviso shall be omitted;
- (b) after sub-rule (1) as so re-numbered, the following sub-rule shall be inserted, namely:—
- "(2) Procedure on application or admission of appeal.—The Appellate Court, after fixing a day for hearing the applicant or his pleader and hearing him accordingly if he appears on that day, and upon a perusal of the application and of the judgment and decree appealed from, shall reject the application, unless it sees reason to think that the decree is contrary to law or to some usage having the force of law, or is otherwise erroneous or unjust."

(10) in Order XLVII,—

(a) rule 2 shall be omitted;

(b) in rule 7, in sub-rule (1), clause (a) shall be omitted.

15. Omission of Third Schedule.—The Third Schedule to the principal Act shall be omitted.

16. Savings in respect of execution of certain decrees by collectors.—Where, before the commencement of this Act, the execution of a decree has been transferred to the Collector under section 68 of the principal Act and is pending before the Collector on such commencement, then, notwithstanding the omission of sections 68 to 72 inclusive and the Third Schedule to the principal Act, the decree shall be executed by the Collector in accordance with the provisions of the said sections and the said Schedule, as if this Act has not been passed.
